Distinguished Lecturer Series
"INSIDE HITLER'S GERMANY,"
TOPIC OF TALK BY CORRESPONDENT

C. Brooks Peters, New York Times war correspondent who worked for the Times in Nazi Germany from Spring, 1937 to late Fall, 1941, will speak on "Inside Hitler's Germany: A War Correspondent's Experiences" in a lecture on campus next Thursday.

Mr. Brooks, who traveled with the invading German armies before U.S. involvement in World War II, will recall his experiences in the free lecture which begins at 8 p.m., April 26, in PS-10.

During his years in Germany, Mr. Peters traveled with the Nazi armies as they invaded Poland, Belgium, Holland and France. As each country fell, his personal account was revealed to the American public and the world in the New York Times. Additionally he watched and reported on the bombardment of Warsaw and the bombing of Rotterdam.

"I actually met Hitler, Goering and Goebbels," Peters said, "and I was present at more occasions when Hitler spoke than any other American reporter."

On November 10, 1938, he witnessed from beginning to end in Berlin the calculated extermination of six million Jews, or as he calls it "the worst pogrom of the 20th century, now known as 'Crystal Night.'"

Because of his unique background, the correspondent has participated in numerous conferences dealing with the "Holocaust." Over the past year he has lectured at colleges and universities in Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia, Vermont, Washington, Oregon, California and Florida.

In addition to the public lecture, Mr. Peters will also speak to Hist. 309 class at 1 p.m., LC-271; and For. Lang. 450 at 4 p.m., LC-219.

CAP & GOWN CO. TO TAKE

A. VIVIEN BULL NEW DANFORTH ASSOCIATE

Word was received on campus this week that A. Vivien Bull, Lecturer in French, has been named a Danforth Foundation Associate for six years, from June 1, 1979 to 1985.

This makes the third appointment of a CSCSB faculty member this year, and is unprecedented in the history of the College. Previously only two faculty members have held appointments in the prestigious program since 1967.

With the recent appointment of Dr. Bull, the total Danforth associates now on campus is five. Larger sister campuses in the CSUC, such as Long Beach, Sacramento and Northridge, have eight or nine.

Dr. Bull joined the College in 1976. She holds a B.A. from Cambridge University in England and an M.A. and Ph.D. from the University of New Mexico, all in French.

MC INTURFF EARNS PH.D.
IN POLITICAL SCIENCE

S. Patrick McInturff, Jr., Lecturer in Public Administration, has received word that he has completed all requirements for the Ph.D. in Political Science at UC, Riverside, effective March 24.

Dr. McInturff's dissertation was on "Products Liability" which deals with the impact of product liability on the part of California manufacturers, a form of law concerning defective products not usually associated with political science research.

Dr. McInturff joined the College last fall. His specialization is in legal environment. He holds a J.D. degree also.

what's going on.

SPRING FESTIVAL - The coming of Spring will be celebrated in a day-long event Wednesday, April 25. From 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. the following activities are scheduled: Bar-B-Q (11-2); Watermelon Sale; Robinhood Archery Shoot (11-4); Pet Show (4-5); band and entertainment throughout the day; disco from 9 p.m. - 1 a.m.

INTERVIEWING WORKSHOP - The opportunity to see yourself as the interviewer sees you will be one of the unique benefits offered to prospective job applicants in an interviewing workshop for students. On four consecutive Wednesdays, 3-4p.m., beginning April 25, "Asserting Yourself in the Job Interview" will be the focus of the sessions, during which professional expertise and group discussion will build interview skills.

Mock interviews will be video-taped and immediate play back will provide feedback. Students may sign up by calling or stopping by the Counseling Center, PS-227, Ext. 7437.

SOCIOLOGY COLLOQUIUM - Frances Coles, Coordinator of Criminal Justice Program, will give a talk on "Women Correctional Officers: Problems and Possibilities!" at the Sociology Colloquium Thursday, April 26, noon in LC-241.

HARRIS STRING QUARTET - The music of Beethoven, Haydn and Milhaud will be performed by the Leslie I. Harris String Quartet Sunday evening, April 22. The concert begins at 7:30 in the Recital Hall.

The opening selection is "Quartet in F Major" by Beethoven. Haydn's "Quartet in D Major," and "String Quartet No. 12," by Milhaud comprise the program. General admission is $1.50, children and students admitted free.

DISCO GYMNASTICS SHOW - The College Acrobatic Club will present a disco gymnastics show on campus Tuesday, April 24. Admission is free and open to all. The program begins at 7 p.m. in the Gym. The presentation is different than traditional gymnastic shows in that it features routines done to disco music, according to Debra Nelson, PE instructor.

The co-ed group of nine will perform exercises on the balance beam, uneven bars, the floor and the trampoline. A tumbling and vaulting demonstration will also be given, featuring the difficult "Sukahara vault."

"FAUST" - Wolfgang von Goethe's immortal drama, "Faust," will be shown tomorrow night at 7 p.m. in PS-10. Filmed in German with English titles; a 1960 release.

VISITORS TO COME FOR FOREIGN LANGUAGE DAY AND MODEL SENATE - Approximately 350 students from area high schools are expected to participate in the College's annual Foreign Language Field Day Wednesday, April 25. The visitors will see presentations, play language games as well as present a special activity of their own school. Certificates of merit will be presented.

A model U.S. Senate is being held on campus today with high school students taking on the roles of U.S. Senators as they serve on committees, speak on the floor, vote, etc. Over a dozen schools have sent representatives to participate in the mock law-making sessions.
